A parent or an unaccompanied homeless youth may select either the district of origin, or the district of current location as the district of attendance.

- If the student was attending the charter school prior to becoming homeless, the district of origin should be designated as the district of attendance to ensure the provision of transportation.
- If the student enrolls in a charter school after becoming homeless, the designation of the district of attendance will depend on factors such as where the student is temporarily living, which district is better suited to provide the transportation, and which district is better suited to provide special education services, if the student has an IEP.

District of Attendance Responsibilities

- ✓ Payment of tuition to the charter school
- ✓ Committee on Special Education (CSE)
